

2/19/90

Attorney Scartelli Joins Wilkes-Barre Law Firm

Attorney Melissa A. Scartelli has joined the law firm of Hourigan, Kluger, Spohrer and Quinn, as an associate in its litigation department.

A graduate of Scranton Preparatory School, she received a bachelor of arts degree from Dickinson College, Carlisle, and a juris doctor degree from Dickinson School of Law. She was admitted to practice in November 1987 before the courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Middle District of Pennsylvania.

She completed a two-year clerkship with Lackawanna County Judge S. John Cottone.

While attending law school she was captain of the National Trial Moot Court Team, which emerged as finalist in regional competition in Richmond, Va. She also received the International Academy of Trial Lawyers Award for her performance in Dickinson's moot court competition.

She is a member of the American Trial Lawyers Association, the Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Association, the Lackawanna County Young Lawyers Association, and the Wilkes-Barre Law and Library Association. Each year she serves as advisor to an area high school for the statewide Mock Trial Competition, sponsored by the Young Lawyers Division of the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

ATTORNEY MELISSA SCARTELLI

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Scartelli, this city.

Corporate Ladder

Scartelli named law firm principal

Melissa Scartelli

Melissa Scartelli of Wilkes-Barre has been named a principal in the regional law firm Hourigan, Kluger, Spohrer and Quinn.

She has been a member of the firm's litigation department since 1989 and previously served as clerk for Judge S. John Cottone, Lackawanna County Court of Common Pleas and for law firms in Scranton and Harrisburg.

Scartelli received her bachelor's degree from Dickinson College and her law degree from Dickinson School of Law.